SECTION 1: CATEGORY OF MEMBERSHIP APPLYING FOR (PLEASE CHECK ONE OF THE BOXES BELOW):

- Full-Voting Membership: Full-voting membership shall be open to any adult over 16 years of age who is of Aboriginal ancestry, self-identifies as being of Aboriginal ancestry with acceptance in the Aboriginal community, is a permanent resident of Prince Edward Island who does not reside on an Indian Reserve (within the meaning of the "Indian Act" of Canada), and who has proven their Aboriginal ancestry to the Board and fulfilled each other criteria as may be approved by the Board of Directors.
- Youth Membership: Youth membership shall be open to any minor between the ages of 10 and 15 who meets all other requirements identified above for full-voting membership. This membership may be applied for by the parent or legal guardian of any minor. Youth members may apply for full-voting membership once they turn 16; they are not automatically full-voting members. Full-voting members under the age of 29 will also be treated as youth members for the purposes of electing a Youth Board of Director.

A separate application is needed for each full-voting member. Any eligible dependants of a full-voting applicant shall be granted youth membership automatically without needing separate applications. Applications may take up to six months for a decision. Applicants who are rejected or asked for additional evidence must submit a new application.

NCPEI membership – what does it mean?

NCPEI represents and advocates for Status, Non-Status, Inuit and Métis peoples residing off-reserve across ancestral Mi'kmaq territory on PEI. Membership is open to Aboriginal peoples residing off-reserve, regardless of Nationhood.

NCPEI also delivers culturally sensitive programs and services to community members that address identified needs in areas such as education and human resources, housing, mental health and addictions, health and wellness, preserving our language, justice, natural resources, and environment.

What are the benefits of NCPEI membership?

- NCPEI members have access to the Kelewatl Aquatic Natural Life Harvesting Commission and L'nu Fisheries Ltd.
- NCPEI members can give direction on actions relating to the aims and objectives of NCPEI, including as voting delegates at Annual General Assemblies

For more information, visit: www.ncpei.com

Does being a member of NCPEI mean I can use my membership card for tax benefits?

No. You can only access certain tax benefits with an Indian Status card.

What about Indian status? What does that mean?

Indian Status is a legal status of Aboriginal people registered under the Indian Act.

What are the benefits of Indian status?

- Access to federal benefits such as Non-Insured Health Benefits, certain education supports
- Access to certain tax benefits
